President's Message

Welcome Indian Summer

The club's annual quilt retreat was held this past weekend at the Holiday Inn in Webster. Everyone had a great time (Jo-Ann's had a 50% off coupon, too!) and projects were completed by the dozen! A big thank you to Laurie Fromm for coordinating this fun and productive retreat.

Less than two weeks to our quilt show at Rogers Middle School in Irondequoit. There will be over 200 quilts on display as well as numerous handmade items in the boutique. I would say that a major beginning could be made on holiday gift shopping at the boutique. Let your friends know of this wonderful quilt show that has been superbly and enthusiastically co-chaired by Nick Williams and Penny Schumacher.

Look forward to seeing everyone at the October club meeting on Monday, October 26th.

.Reminders for October meeting

Bring a fat quarter for the Fat Quarter drawing. October is "Animal Prints".

Please remember to bring canned and/or boxed food items to donate to the Irondequoit Quilt Club. Pat Fackleman and Deb Pratt-Gnage have stepped up to get this activity going again. Please help out if you can.

Wear your nametag, so we can all get to know each other's names.

Refreshments

At the October 27 meeting, we'll be serving the remaining ice cream from the Ice Cream Social. (I need my freezer space back!!) In addition we'll have hot water for drinks and if there are leftovers from the Quilt Show snacks, we'll serve those as well.

While this covers some yummy snacks for October, it doesn't resolve the basic issue of who will provide/serve monthly snacks. December is our holiday party and May is our year end party so that leaves just Jan., Feb., Mar., and April. Soooo we need 4 groups of members who will bring snacks, start the hot water and tidy up when it's over. I think 6-8 people could handle it per month. Are you willing to pitch in??? We'll have sign up sheets at the membership table at the Oct. 27 meeting.

Sherry McArthur's Class

On Saturday, Nov. 22 from 10-4, our own member, Sherry McArthur will be teaching a tablerunner class. It takes just 1 1/3 yards of border fabric to make 2 tablerunners. The cost is just $10!! What a perfect opportunity to make a tablerunner for yourself and one to give as a gift. Sherry has a sample that you'll be able to see at the Oct. 27 meeting. Sign up and join the fun!!.

October Meeting

At the October meeting, Nick and Penny will lead us in a process to evaluate the Quilt Show. We'll celebrate our Show and also look for ways to enhance the Show next time. Bring your thoughts and ideas and enjoy some delicious ice cream! Remember, if you won a ribbon at the Show, please bring your award winning quilt to the Show so Laurie can take pictures
