President's Message

Wow. It's been absolutely crazy for me lately. After finishing the "best costume EVER" for Jacob at the last minute, it was suddenly Halloween. I haven't had a chance to do any quilting since the retreat, but I am proud to say that I managed to finish two knitting projects! One is a shawl for my niece in the USMC, on size 35 needles that Mom calls "telephone poles." The second is the prayer shawl that I started for myself just after my husband died. I've been working on it a little at a time and finally was able to cast off. I've also begun Christmas shopping and crafting, in all of my free time. Wow, did anyone else notice that I just completely skipped Thanksgiving, just like retail stores? I hope everyone else has time to quilt!

Vice Presidents' Update – Lucy Donalies & Barb Gerardi

- At the Sew Day in October there were some members interested to learn to Paper Piece. Jean Cody has come forward and offered to teach an Advanced Beginner class on a Saturday in 2016. The estimated cost for the day long class will be $25, including the pattern and printed sheets. It will be geared toward those who have little or no experience in paper piecing. We will have a sign-up sheet starting at the November meeting. We will not collect money until after the first of the year. Jean already has the sample completed and can show it us.
- At the November meeting Penny Schumacher will have a sample of the "Four Patch Posey" quilt that she will teach us on January 16, 2016. The cost is $10. We will also have a sign-up sheet.
- We signed up to host the Quilters Consortium of New York State on March 16, 2016. It is a one day meeting where members from all over New York State come together and we will serve lunch and invite local quilt shops to participate. We also will need the help of the club to make table decorations and serve the food. Stay tuned for more information.
- November meeting: "Sew Organized" by Julia Deal of Sew Artistic.
- December meeting: Christmas Dinner and singing Christmas Carols with Nick Williams at the piano.
- January meeting: work on things we need for the Consortium Meeting
- February meeting: Garage Sale & Demo Derby (moved from January Meeting)

Subject: IQC

I am looking to find someone to make a memory quilt for Christmas.

Thank you, Ann Gebhard

WANTED:

Twin-size bed quilts for the residents of Zion House in Avon, one of the first houses in the country and the first in New York State that operates exclusively for female veterans. Zion House serves veterans of all (or no) faiths from all branches of the armed services, providing support services and helping residents to build work experience.

Each bedroom is color-coordinated, and twin quilts are needed in the following colors: red, green, blue, yellow/gold, and burgundy. If you are interested in contributing a quilt, please contact Jen Ulrich at 310-7199. Many thanks.

Georgia Sadler served as acting president for the meeting. Jenn Steward had a conflict and couldn't attend.

There was one guest at the meeting.

Georgia, Jenn and Mary Lou Fitch cleaned the mess in the storage room at the church. Georgia reminded everyone to only donate usable quilting-appropriate fabric. If you have other fabrics that you would like to donate, Bits and Pieces in Fairport accepts donations. <http://craftbitsandpieces.com/> There are some magazines and some fabric available free from the storage room.

We are reopening the IQC library with better carts obtained used from the Irondequoit Public Library. If you have any IQC library books, please return them at the November meeting. Mary Lou Fitch and Donna German are working on inventory. Feel free to donate any current books you have. Thank you, Lucy, for your efforts to get these carts and for getting your son to pick them up!

Lucy gave a program update – class on November 14 has Laura Wagner teaching cathedral windows. Jean Cody will teach a paper piecing class in the spring.

Merrilee MacWilliam has sent out parts 1 – 4 of the Mystery Quilt. If you did not receive any or all, talk to Merrilee. She sent only to paid members.

Cheryl Bond distributed new membership cards.

Program: Brenda McHale demonstrated how to make a design wall using cardboard, flannel, curtain rods, and clips. Barb Gerardi showed how she used a design board to plan a quilt she was making.

Raffle: New chairs Janet Rosenberg and Kathy Lee conducted the first raffle. Barb Gerardi won.

Fat Quarter Drawing: Won by Janet Rosenberg and Barb Gerardi (do you see a theme here?).

The meeting ended with show and tell.

Many thanks to Ruth Tetlow for taking minutes.
