Merrilee Mac William is a talented quilter and long arm quilter who works out of her studio ,Mermac Design. She is both as a professional quilter and a teacher to those who wish to quilt their own quilts. She has a font of knowledge about both the art and science of quilting and will be presenting on quilting your quilt using a home machine at our October meeting on the 23rd.

Jean Cody will be leading a workshop on November 18, teaching a no tears method of paper piecing . Class members will be making a storm at sea quilt with a romantic twist.

Our November 27th meeting will be devoted to working on charity projects. We will need sorters, cutters, ironers, sewers, and jack-of-all trades workers

Cathy Wiggs will be our December 18th program at our holiday dinner. Both a quilter and a story teller, she will be telling stories of quilting and the Great Depression. A dynamic woman, she will leave us with laughter tears rolling down our faces.

Pam Capen will be presenting a trunk show on her quilting journey at our January 22 meeting. She will also be conducting a workshop the following day on “Daffodil or Tulip Kisses”, a three dimensional quilt requiring simple paper piecing.

February 26th is our Garage Sale and Demo Derby night. Members will be selling quilting items before and during the meeting. We will have three quilting demonstrations on qpplique, techniques to make a more professional quilt, and embroidery work by members, Jeanne Muhl, Brenda McHale, and Cindy Merrow.

Marie Bell from Country Treasures in Brockport will be our presenter at our March 26th meeting. She will have a trunk show and demo about English Paper Piecing Clamshell.

At our April 23rd meeting Wenda Coburn will present on several ways to “quilt-as-you-go” using your home machines. On April 24th, she will teach class members how to make a quilt using at least 2 of her “quilt-as-you-go” techniques.

In May, at our meeting on the 21st, Debbie Thomas will present a trunk show using Studio 180 rulers. She is a certified Studio 180 teacher and will have items for sale.

Our June 25th presenter will be Caren Betlinski, who will present a talk and trunk show on her Journey in Thread painting at our end of the year dinner.
