President's Message

I have been hearing wonderful things about the September functions. As always, Laurie Fromm did an outstanding job chairing the annual fall retreat. The grapevine told me everyone had a wonderful time. Thanks to Lyz Covert, September's meeting went off without a hitch and our quest speaker, Charlotte Hawkes, was very well received. Thanks Lyz, for standing in for me and of course thanks to all our chair people for being so well prepared for the meeting. We have had so many requests for learning about domestic machine quilting and I am so excited for October's meeting when Marilee MacWilliam will be giving a presentation on that topic. Although it is going to be an interactive meeting, please be mindful that many of us have hearing problems so please keep that in mind by keeping conversations with your friends to a minimum. We all want to be able to hear and participate in this fun evening to get the most out of Marilee's instructions. I am looking forward to October's meeting when I will see all of you and catch-up on your summer activities.

Sandy

If you have not renewed your membership with the club please come to the October meeting with cash or check made out to Irondequoit Quilt Club. Remember we will be asking you to verify the information we have on file for you. You will be able to make any corrections needed on the envelope provided. ## 2018 Quilt Show Boutique Table – Gail Yanus, Monique Liberti, and Vanetta Parshall

The next boutique meeting is this coming Monday, October 16, 6:30pm at the Irondequoit library. Our committee is a great way to contribute to the quilt show and meet members of our club. Bring your ideas/patterns that you'd like to propose for next year's Boutique Table; we would love to have some samples to show at the next club meeting. We are looking forward to putting all our creative ideas together to make our Boutique Table a great success. Everyone is welcome to participate.

If your unable to make the meeting but want to start making items to sell we will begin collecting at the next club meeting. Remember our products should not be more than $10 and there is a form to be completed with all donated items. We will have these at the meeting. Also, we are collecting card stock so we can make our own price tags.

Sunshine – Rita Castle

Sunshine sent out one card to Camille Jones on the death of her mother, and another to Lyz Covert for the death of her brother. One other card was sent out to a member for illness. Thank you to Laurie Fromm for sending me a card with many signatures on it for the death of my mother-in-law.

Remember to let Rita know if any of our members need a little "sunshine". You may contact her through email at rcastle2@rochester.rr.com or phone at 626-0211.

2018 Quilt Show Update – Laurie Fromm

Planning is underway for our Biennial Quilt Show in 2018. All the committees are set up and we will meet in the next few weeks. We need everyone to help with this to make is successful!

Boutique: Gail Yanus, Vanetta and Monique are starting to get items for the boutique, we can use all items that you would like to donate. This time, there will be a form for you to fill out and submit with your donated items. We will need a description of the item, a suggested cost and if you would like it back if it doesn't sell. This will help them set up and price the items for the boutique. Please contact any of them if you have questions or comments. The value for items is less than $15.

Silent Auction: Liz Brown and Linda Kanana are looking for any and all donations! The value should be over $15.

Opportunity Quilt: Penny Schumacher and Nick Williams are working on completing this. It is looking beautiful!

Needs: We need your quilts! It is not too early to think about completing projects to display in the show. Does someone have the ability to make copies (especially the program) for a reasonable cost or free? Please contact Laurie Fromm if you do.

Thanks for all your help!
