President's Message

I am still in total awe of our opportunity quilt that Penny and Nick displayed at the February meeting. It is the most magnificent quilt I have ever seen. The members gave it a well-deserved standing ovation. For those of you who were not at the meeting, you will see in Terri's notes a lot of important news about the quilt show and work being done on the planning of the 2018-19 retreat(s). Our guest speaker, Jerilyn Prentice, received a warm welcome from our members as she described a ministry that she chairs, Cozy Quilts which makes quilts for cancer patients the first Tuesday of the month from 9:00-noon. As the Rochester base needs volunteers, if this is something you would like to be a part of, please contact me and I will put you in contact with Jerilyn.

See you all in March.

Sandy

Charity Coordination – Lucy Donalies

Thank you to all that have picked up kits and delivered completed quilt tops. Thank you also for the completed Wounded Warrior blocks. I am working on some new patterns that better fit the needs of our recipients. Many are in wheel chairs and cannot accommodate a quilt larger than 24" or 36" wide. We also found out that St John's Home is not in need of any lap quilts or walker bags. Therefore, we can focus on the other charities. At the next meeting, I will have a typed sheet of the preferred size quilts that you may take to aid you in making the sizes that work for them.

Retreat - Laurie Fromm

Working on locations for day retreats. Jackie Lynn's is strong possibility. Checking dates for this spring. May have several a year if members would like.

Quilt Show Boutique Update – Monique Liberti, Vanetta Parshall, and Gail Yanus

Thank you for all the donations so far, we are well on our way to having a great assortment of items to sell at our Boutique! We do need more though - if you know what you're planning on making to donate please send me an email with the items and quantity - mlliberti641@gmail.com.

If you need ideas we have plenty - holiday theme items, gift card holders, tote bags (all sizes), kids items, ornaments.....

We also have plenty of patterns so if you need one please contact me or Vanetta.

Also, we are still collecting ribbon, small pins and canning jars.

Donations can be brought to the next club meeting.

Thanks again!

April Meeting and Workshop – Penny Schumacher

Our presenter for our April meeting will be Wenda Coburn. With a passion for sewing, design, quilting and instruction, in 1988 Wenda Coburn started Just for Ewe Sewing, providing a variety of services from traditional tailoring to custom quilt making. Enthusiastic about helping others to experience the joys of sewing, she began teaching in 1998. In 2004, she became a certified Square-in-a-Square instructor and product distributor. In 2007, she earned Diamond Certification and was published in the book, "Moving On With Diamonds."

Wanting to finish quilts herself, she learned easy machine quilting techniques that gave a beautiful finish. "Quilting with training wheels" became a signature saying used in many of her popular Machine Quilting workshops. In 2006, she began teaching how to quilt on a regular sewing machine and offered resources and tools for home quilters. In 2009, Wenda published the book, Short Arm Machine Quilting. In 2010 and 2011 she was published in Quilter Magazine with articles on short arm machine quilting.

Wenda currently works as a Long Arm Quilter/Quilting Educator in her Liverpool, NY home (when not on a cycling adventure!

Meeting Program: Monday, April 23, 2018

Quilt-As-You-Go 5 ways (and a few more for good measure)

Each quilt is unique and different, therefore there are many methods for putting it together and quilting it. You will learn 5 + methods for putting your quilt together after you have quilted smaller, manageable sections. Block by Block, Row by Row, seam covering strips, and borders and more! Lots of information, including a truck show of samples!

Workshop: Tuesday, April 24, 2018 at Jackie Lynn's Fabric shop, 10am to 2pm (you can stay and sew until 5pm)

Quilt-As-You-Go: 4 Ways and a 5th Thrown in for Good Measure!

Learn each of the five techniques in a hands-on workshop. At the end of the workshop, you will have a sample and notes for each technique to take home as a reference. A supply list and pre-workshop homework will be given out as you register for the class. Cost: $25

Executive Board Meeting Minutes – March 5, 2018

Present - Sandy Bubel, Laurie Fromm, Lucy Donalies, Penny Schumacher, Kathy Russell and Teri Rideout

Meeting Minutes – February 26, 2018

President: Sandy Bubel

The Meeting was called to order at 7:00 p.m. with a welcome to the club's members.

The Pledge of Allegiance was recited.

Secretary's Report: Teri Rideout

A motion to accept the January's secretary's report was made by Penny Schumacher and seconded by Lyz Covert. The motion was carried.

We recognized Lucy Donalies for her charity work, she puts in 20 – 30 hours a week. Also, she does the sew days every Saturday. If anyone would like to help Lucy with the charity quilts and or Sew days please contact Lucy or a board member. Rita is noticing that she is not getting notification of Sunshine needs. We need to have a buddy system if your buddy has an illness or death in the family and would like some sunshine please email or call Rita Castle, 585-626-0211, rcastle2@rochester.rr.com

Penny Schumacher, New Member / Guests: Pam Jonson she was a guest twice is now a member!

Penny is hosting a new member gathering at her house March 22 at 6:30, old and new members are welcome

QCNY's Wednesday March 21, 2018 - We had 2 spots those were filled for the trip is in Naples.

Refreshments - We had a sign-up sheet go around for snacks for March and April; Debbie needs 3 dozen for the month you sign up for.

Laurie Fromm – Quilt show: Our "Celestial Gardens" Quilt is ready and is amazing!

Tickets will be available at the March meeting every member is responsible for selling 3 books; 2 for the Quilt and 1 for the sewing machine. We are allowed to sell tickets in Livingston, Monroe, Ontario, Wayne and Yates counties. We can start to sell them April 28th.

Our Retreat will not be at the Radisson this year, we are looking into other venues for day camping.

Boutique:

Monique has patterns and a sign-up sheet; we would like more than one of each item so it doesn't look "garage saley".

Let her know if there is something you want to make, she will get a pattern to you.

For the auction Liz needs table runners, placemats, small quilts, kits just some ideas, these items should be 15 dollars and up.

Laurie suggested that we keep things we make for charity or the auction or boutique away from animals because of allergies.

April 9th at 6:30 will be a quilt show meeting at the Irondequoit library.

Betsy won the monthly raffle ...colorful clips!

Jerilyn Prentise from Cozy Quilts was our speaker, this is a ministry for people with a cancer diagnosis, there are 10 groups in NY, Cozy quilts is the only one in Rochester, they have helped 300 ppl . they gift a quilt a bag both handmade also a book "When God meets cancer" and a personal card. "the quilts seem to arrive to a person when they really need it, brings comfort and a smile to them at the perfect time"

They meet the 1st Tuesday of the month at 9am at Journey church at Mt Read and Vintage.

We took a break at 7:54

We had Garage Sale and appliqué samples.

Respectfully submitted,

Teri Rideout
